

The TransSecurity Solution

The recent economic environment has left many affluent individuals facing the challenge of maintaining enough resources to address their current and future lifestyle needs. Faced with this unexpected circumstance, they are finding themselves deeply concerned that they may not be able to leave something to their children and grandchildren.

Fortunately, Transamerica has a solution that enables individuals to live as they planned through their lifetime, while still taking care of the next and future generations.

The TransSecurity Solution provides:

- Cash for loved ones to sustain a desired lifestyle,
- Cash for loved ones to create opportunities similar to those available today, and
- A plan, independent of external factors such as taxes, investments, economic conditions and lower-paying career or vocational choices.

By offering this four-part solution, TransSecurity is creating solid opportunities for current and future generations.
